

Mickey's Toontown Fair

Explorer Challenge

An explorer observes things closely. They see details that other people miss. As you explore Toontown, pay close attention to the details below. Shade in the circle only if the statement is false. The letters that remain reveal who turned his corn crop into money and founded Mickey's Toontown Fair.

- C Inside the gas pump at Pete's Garage is the restroom key.
- I W-A-C-K-Y Radio plays all rock-n-roll, all the time.
- O The letter "G" is on the tail of Goofy's airplane.
- R Pink hearts are on top of Minnie's house.
- N Sitting on Minnie's living room table is the book Famous Mice in History.
- C Minnie's sewing machine is pink and white.
- E On Minnie's bulletin board there is a page from her calendar and it is dated Oct 29.
- L In Minnie's oven you will find a cake.
- T The fence outside Mickey's house is blue.

Where can you find a statue of the Toontown founder?

Mickey Mouse actually started out with the name Mortimer Mouse! It's true. It was at the suggestion of Walt's wife, Lillian, that he use the name Mickey instead.

"I loved Goofy's Barnstormer. I thought it was a little kid's ride, but it was so much fun. My whole family rode on it, and we all had a great time. First thing in the morning Goofy sometimes rides with guests!" Grace, age 9, MT
